

Eastern Situation
9/1/22

September 1, 1922

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY

Subject: Eastern Situation - Summary of Current Events

Reference is made to the report of the Secretary of State dated August 28, 1922.

The situation in the Eastern Hemisphere continues to be characterized by a general state of uncertainty and instability. The recent developments in the Balkans and the Middle East have further complicated the picture.

It is noted that the recent developments in the Balkans, particularly in Greece and Turkey, have raised serious concerns regarding the stability of the region. The situation in the Middle East, particularly in Syria and Iraq, remains highly volatile.

The Secretary's report of August 28, 1922, provides a detailed account of the current situation in the Eastern Hemisphere. It is noted that the situation in the Balkans and the Middle East remains highly volatile.

The Secretary's report of August 28, 1922, provides a detailed account of the current situation in the Eastern Hemisphere. It is noted that the situation in the Balkans and the Middle East remains highly volatile.

The Secretary's report of August 28, 1922, provides a detailed account of the current situation in the Eastern Hemisphere. It is noted that the situation in the Balkans and the Middle East remains highly volatile.

The Secretary's report of August 28, 1922, provides a detailed account of the current situation in the Eastern Hemisphere. It is noted that the situation in the Balkans and the Middle East remains highly volatile.

Very truly yours,
[Signature]

Special Agent in Charge