"All items not payable in San Antonio, received by this Bank for credit, or collection, are taken upon the express condition that this bank is not to be held liable for the acts or omission of any other banks, or collectors, to whom they may be thereafter transmitted, or for loss in transmission. The liability of this bank being hereby limited to its own acts and should the collecting party convert the proceeds, or remit by checks, or drafts, which are thereafter dishonored, the amount for which credit has been given will be charged back. We will use our discretion as to sending direct through intermediary banks for collecting, acting as agent only, and assuming no responsibility beyond carefulness in selecting such agents."

All items, including checks on this bank, will be credited subject to actual payment. Checks on this bank found not good at close of business will be charged back to depositors.
