Dear Mr. Ayres:-

Your letter was forwarded to me from Irvington Ala and I received it last night.

You know I was ordered North for my health and am at Northfield, Minn. In "Gridley Hall" and am getting on very nicely. Would be very glad to hear from you here.

I shall not be back South before middle Sept.

I at once sent to our Dicty at Irvington the enclosed night letter and hope that it will be the means of relieving you while at Washington for believe that he will get busy and also put spurs to Mr. R. M. Dodge so that he will get busy also.

I am writing Mr Dodge to-day enclosing your letter and hope to stir up something.
