

COUNCIL OF NATIONAL ADVISORS

Pursuant to the By-Laws of the National Highways for Life Chairmen of the following Divisions in the Council accepted by the following: Members of recognized ability and appointments will be made as rapidly as the various within each State are nominated by their respective National Trustees, and are appointed by the State Trustees of their respective State in each Division. Each Division has charge of its particular National Advisors likewise participates in the selection and removal

Association, the National Trustees have appointed all of National Advisors. Appointments thereto have and assistance in the Arts, Sciences, and Letters." Additions to the Council will be made as rapidly as the various Divisions, by and with the advice and consent of the National States. These State Advisors consist of five (5) members in active activity as it pertains to Highways and Roads. The Council of the National Trustees:—

- | Chairmen | Division |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| GEORGE C. WARREN, Boston, Mass. | Highway Engineering |
| President Western States; member of the largest Highway Engineering Contractors in the United States. | |
| WILLIAM M. DAVIS, Cambridge, Mass. | Physical Geography |
| Professor of Geology, Emeritus, Harvard University; Member of the National Academy of Science, Washington; Corresponding Member of the Academies of Science of Berlin and Paris; most noted Geographer of the United States. | |
| BELA L. PRATT, Boston, Mass. | Sculpture |
| One of the great Sculptors of his times. | |
| HENRY S. GRAVES, Washington, D. C. | Forestry |
| National Chief Forester of the United States. | |
| PROF. WILLIAM H. BURR, New York City | Consulting Civil Engineers |
| Probably the leading Civil Engineer of his period; member Panama Canal Commission, etc. | |
| EDMUND T. PERKINS, M. A., C. E., Chicago, Ill. | National Drainage |
| Eminent Drainage and Civil Engineer; Past President National Drainage Congress. | |
| WALDRON WILLIAMS, New York City | National Membership Committee |
| Prominent financial and social leader and long identified with the Good Roads Movement and the Automobile Club of America as Governor, etc. therof. | |
| E. STAGO WHITIN, New York City | National Honor Men |
| Head of the National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor; long identified with social reform problems. | |
| CHARLES P. PERIN, New York City | Mining Engineers |
| Prominent International as a Mining and Metallurgical Engineer. | |
| GEORGE WILKINSON, Plainfield, N. J. | Certified Public Accountants |
| A leading Certified Public Accountant. | |
| WILLIAM L. CONNELL, Scranton, Penn. | Mining |
| Mine Owner; Chairman of the Anthracite Conciliation Board since 1902. | |
| MARK SULLIVAN, New York City | Weekly Publications |
| Editor of Collier's Weekly . | |
| F. M. SAMMIS, Newark, N. J. | Wireless Transportation |
| Chief Engineer of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America. | |
| L. M. BOOMER, New York City | Hotels |
| Lessee and Manager Hotel McAlpin, New York, Hotel Taft, New Haven, etc. | |
| CHARLES W. LEAVITT, Jr., Hartsdale, N. Y. | Landscape Engineers |
| A man of the highest attainments in the field of Landscape Engineering. | |
| DR. LUTHER H. GULICK, New York City | Camp-Fire Girls |
| Of wide repute in education work with Sage Foundation; established Playground Association of America, Camp-Fire Girls, etc. | |
| SPENCER M. DUTY, Cleveland, Ohio | Paving Brick |
| Large manufacturer of paving bricks. | |
| ROGER W. BABSON, Wellesley Hills, Mass. | Statistics |
| Leading Statistician; author of many public questions, and head of Babson's Statistical Organization. | |
| JOSEPH L. SMITH, Boston, Mass. | Pagantry |
| One of our great Artists who has devoted much thought and time to pagantry. | |
| GIFFORD PINCHOT, Washington, D. C. | Conservation |
| Whose name stands for Conservation of our public resources. | |
| FRANK MORRISON, Washington, D. C. | Organized Labor |
| Secretary of the American Federation of Labor. | |
| REV. CHARLES S. MACFARLAND, Ph.D., New York City | Protestant Churches |
| General Secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America;—composed of 139,995 churches and 17,438,862 communicants. | |
| DANIEL FROHMAN, New York City | American Drama |
| One of our great Theatrical Managers. | |
| CHARLES P. STEINMETZ, Schenectady, N. Y. | Electric Transmission |
| Chief Electrician of the General Electric Company;—a man who will go down in history as one of the great Scientists of his times. | |
| L. N. BROOKWAY, Cleveland, Ohio | National Rural Post |
| President of the Rural Free Delivery Carriers Association of the United States. | |
| FRANK L. MULLILLAND, Toledo, Ohio | Rotary Clubs |
| President of the International Rotary Clubs, an organization of enormous membership. | |
| DR. WALTER F. RITTMAN, M.E., Ph.D., Washington, D. C. | Chemical Engineering |
| Chemical Engineer of the Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior, United States Government. | |
| AUGUST BELMONT, New York City | Merchant Marine |
| International Harbinger; builder of the Cape Cod Canal. | |
| LOUIS F. POST, Washington, D. C. | Singlets |
| Assistant Secretary of Labor in President Wilson's Cabinet. | |
| JACQUES LOEB, New York City | Medical Research |
| Of the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research. | |
| C. G. HOAG, A.M., Haverford, Penn. | Proportional Representation |
| Formerly Professor at Haverford University, and General Secretary of the American National Representation League. | |
| LYNN HAINES, Washington, D. C. | National Voters League |
| Secretary of the National Voters League. | |
| WALDO G. MORSE, New York City | American Jurisprudence |
| Eminent Lawyer, and Treasurer of the American Academy of Jurisprudence. | |
| ROBERT M. MCBRIDE, Philippe Manor, N. Y. | Travel |
| Publisher of Travel, Lippincott's , etc. etc. | |
| W. G. SCOTT, San Francisco, Calif. | National Parks |
| An authority on National Parks; Secretary of the Inyo Good Roads Club of California, and a very prominent advocate of the cause of National Highways and Good Roads Everywhere. | |

- | Chairmen | Division |
|--|--|
| ARTHUR H. BLANCHARD, C.E., A.M., New York City | Highway Engineers |
| Professor in the Department of the Graduate Course in Highway Engineering at Columbia University in New York City; Consulting Highway Engineer. | |
| NAT TYLEE, Hills, N. J. | Bituminous Distributors |
| Secretary of the American-Road Machinery Company, one of the largest road machinery manufacturing companies. | |
| REV. P. A. BAKER, D.D., Westerville, Ohio | Anti-Saloon League |
| General Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, the most dominant force of its kind in the United States. | |
| JUSTICE WILLIAM L. RANSOM, New York City | The Courts |
| Justice of the New York Court of New York City; author of many procedural reforms which have made that great commercial tribunal distinctive as a forum for speedy and substantial justice. | |
| DR. WILLIAM J. MARGO, Rochester, Minn. | Surgery |
| President of American Surgical Association; founder of the Mayo Clinic; has recently created a $2,000,000 foundation for medical research in the University of Minnesota. | |
| NELSON P. LEWIS, C.E., Brooklyn, N. Y. | City Planning |
| Chief Engineer of Board of Estimate and Apportionment, New York City; Past President of the American Road Builders' Association; Vice-Chairman National Conference on City Planning; one of the leading Municipal Engineers of his time. | |
| MILTON J. ROSSAU, M.D., Boston, Mass. | Preventive Medicine |
| Professor of Preventive Medicine and Hygiene, Harvard University Medical School; member of Massachusetts Health Commission. | |
| MAX EASTMAN, New York City | The Masses |
| Editor of The Masses . | |
| DR. NICOLAS CURRAY BUTLER, New York City | Conciliation |
| President of Columbia University; Publicist; member of Executive Committee of American Association for International Conciliation; member of the American Road Builders' Association; Vice-Chairman of the American Association of Public Authorities; Ex-President Philadelphia Art Society; Director American Science and Historic Preservation Society. | |
| HON. CALVIN TOMKINS, New York City | Highway Materials |
| A leading citizen of New York City; a very large producer of materials for highway construction; author of many pamphlets relating to physical development of the American Road Builders' Association City of New York; Ex-President American Association of Public Authorities; Ex-President Philadelphia Art Society; Director American Science and Historic Preservation Society. | |
| PROF. EMORY R. JOHNSON, Ph.D., Sc.D., Phila., Penn. | Transportation |
| Professor of Transportation and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania; member Panama Canal Commission; eminent Author. | |
| CHARLES T. EASTBURN, Yardley, Penn. | Contractors |
| Prominent Contractor and Builder of roads. | |
| S. JONES PHILLIPS, Kennett Square, Penn. | Road Machines |
| President of American Road Machinery Company, Inc.; a most active, energetic, public-spirited man; interested in road improvement from boyhood. | |
| JACOB S. ROBESON, Pennington, N. J. | Road Finishing Materials |
| Prominent inventor and investigator of road finishing materials; long identified with the Good Roads Movement. | |
| FRED K. S. FISH, South Bend, Ind. | Street and Road Sprinklers |
| President of the Studebaker Corporation, the world's largest producer of road vehicles of all kinds. | |
| PROF. EDWIN R. A. SELIGMAN, Ph.D., LL.D., New York City | Finance |
| Professor of Economics, Columbia University; a learned and high national and international authority on finance and allied economic subjects. | |
| HOWARD MARMON, Indianapolis, Ind. | Touring |
| An enthusiastic motorist; Secretary and Chief Engineer Nurdyck & Marmon Company, large manufacturers of motor cars; long a leader in the cause of Good Roads Everywhere. | |
| HENRY FISHER, New York City | Road Oils and Asphalts |
| Manager of Road Oil and Asphalt Department of the Standard Oil Company; an authority on road oils, asphalts, binders, bitulithic compounds, and paving flux. | |
| LAWRENCE ADDICKS, Douglass, Ariz. | Electrochemistry |
| Prominent American Electrochemical Society; a leader of the State in mining enterprises. | |
| CHARLES W. STOUTINGTON, New York City | Municipal Art |
| President of the Society of New York, and a man devoted to Civic beautification. | |
| GEORGE W. TILSON, Brooklyn, N. Y. | Municipal Engineers |
| Engineer to the Board of Estimate of Brooklyn City of New York; Past President American Road Builders' Association; a leading highway authority. | |
| COL. L. W. KENNON, U. S. A., Washington, D. C. | Highway Construction |
| A leading government engineer with wide experience in highway building. | |
| LAURA S. STEWART (Mrs. John Wood Stewart), Glen Ridge, N. J. | National Plant, Flower, and Fruit Guild |
| Founder and National President of the National Plant, Flower, and Fruit Guild, which is doing so much good in so many cities of the United States. | |
| PASTOR CHARLES TAZE RUSSELL, Brooklyn, N. Y. | Bible Students |
| A man with enormous personal following interested in the religious and moral welfare of Society. | |
| W. T. BEATTY, Chicago, Ill. | Rock Crushers |
| President Austin Manufacturing Company; a man of wide repute as a manufacturer of road-making machinery of all kinds. | |
| JAMES BRONSON REYNOLDS, New York City | Social Hygiene |
| One of the National leaders in Sociology and Social Reform. | |
| HENRY GALLUP PAINE, New York City | Simplified Spelling |
| Secretary of the Simplified Spelling Board. | |
| CHARLES P. PRICE | Road Tars and Pitches |
| Manager of the American Tar Company, and a recognized authority on the subject. | |
| THOMAS RUTHERFORD MACMECHEN | Aeronautics |
| Aeronautical Engineer; President Aeronautical Society of America; Designer and Builder of the first rigid airship constructed in England; a recognized authority on the air-ship; author of voluminous writings on the rigid dirigible. | |