

This as a photostat from the Hughes book
The 11. Banner was fraced on the paper herewith and the typew record made at same time from the book, sent from Lib of Cong.

Copy from Sherwin-Williams

Castles gold on a field of red (Am. Vermillion)

Lions red (am. Vermillion) on a field of white

American Vermillion is as near the color of red as seems right. checked with Sherwin-Williams also

The flag here is from "Famous Flags of America" by N. R. Hughes, Bloomington Ill. Book loaned by Library of Congress.

P 338, Illustration 359, Geographical Mag. Oct 1917, the flag is also shown but the lions have gold crowns over their heads, and instead of red lions on white field the lions are on a silver field.