

*Research
Tx State Library
2-1-21*

Stephen Austin's map of Texas, 1829, on file in the archives of the University of Texas, shows the old San Antonio road passing through the following places:

Presidio del Rio Grande
Bexar

turns

Katherine Elliott research, Texas State Library, Austin,

Feb 1, 1921

(This letter in Tx Hist Folder)

archives
passes

This map record is negative as to El Camino Real old Spanish trail and shows indefiniteness in early Am. Period period.

Natchitoches

Old San Antonio Road according to Stephen F. Austin's map of Texas, 1835; on file in State Library:

Presidio del Rio Grande
Bexar
Nacogdoches
Natchitoches

Map of Spanish Texas, 1835 in Map files

French map of Texas, made by A. Brue in 1840, on file in State Library, shows the S. A. road as follows:

Presidio del Rio Grande
San Antonio de Bexar
Mina or Bastrop
Ance. S. Teodoro
Nacogdoches
San Augustine
Natchitoches

Atlas of Myer's Travels, map made by Hauptm. Radefeld, 1850(?). San Antonio road as follows:

Presidio del Rio Grande
Bexar
Bastrop
Robin's Ferry (on Trinity)
Crocket
Dugglass
Nacogdoches
San Augustine
Milam Natchitoches
Natchez.