campaign, which they feel cannot help but be of great benefit to every city lying on your highway.

COMMENT.

The check at Lake Charles is drawn on a bank at Baker, Oregon. The return information is "No Account."

The check at San Diego is drawn on Tampa, Florida. The return information is "Not Sufficient Funds."

I have records of Francis' representations and record at other chambers of commerce. Just how much money he has obtained will not be fully known until the lid is taken off of things.

His representations of course are insincere. The facts of which I have record show the type of the man. It is not strange that the San Diego Chamber of Commerce sent out letters of inquiry, for the plans outlined by Francis, and by the letters of Johnston and Colp, would put any intelligent man on inquiry.
