Dear Madam:

In reply to your favor of March 25, we enclose herewith copy of § 11 of chapter 439, Laws 1923, which is the law of this state relating to advertising along the public highways.

Yours truly,

G. K. Spang

GKS-KR-Enc.

Department Clerk.

Sec. 11. Obstruction of or damage to highways.—That section 75, of chapter 323, Laws 1921, be and the same hereby is amended by adding thereto a subdivision, to be designated as subdivision 3, reading as follows:

"Sub. 3. Any person who in any manner places, puts or maintains any advertisement within the limits of a public highway, or who in any manner paints, prints, places, puts or affixes, or causes to be painted, printed, placed or affixed any advertisement on or to any stone, tree, fence, stump, pole, mile-board, mile-stone, danger-sign, danger-signal, guide-sign, guide-post, billboard, building, or other object within the limits of a public highway, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; Provided, however, that none of the provisions of this act shall prohibit the placing of public notices on billboards erected for that purpose by authority of the governing body of a municipality. Any advertisement in or upon a public highway in violation of the provisions of this subdivision may be taken down, removed, or destroyed by direction or authority of the commissioner of highways in the case of state trunk highways, by the county board in the case of county and state aid roads and by the town board in the case of town roads."
