Dear Sir:

Your letter of September 4th has now been received having been addressed in the first place to "Cambridge, Conn." from which place it was returned to you for the correct address. We are very glad if the map pleased you. As to a magazine or publication such as you suggest we appreciate your spirit of cooperation and this Association has for some time been thinking of something of the sort but owing to war conditions it is not taking on any new obligations. Therefore anything of this kind would have to wait until conditions become more normal.

Yours very truly,

for

Charles Henry Davis

President.
