

El Paso,

New Mexico

Mesilla Park,

Las Cruces,

Rodeo,

Arizona

San Bernardino Valley,

San Pedro River,

Tucson,

Santa Cruz Valley,

Santa Catalina Mts.

Mesa,

Gila River,

Yuma,

Colorado River, Ariz-Cal. line,

California

California
El Centro,

El Cajon,

San Diego,

Sp. The Pass. Originally El Paso del Norte, The Pass of the North.

Sp. Originally La Mesilla, a small table (or tableland) same table (L)

Sp. The crosses.

Sp. Inclosure for cattle. a sound up (L) Round up

Sp. St. Bernardino.

Sp. St. Peter.

(A) Meaning not known; animal suggestions. Black horse (L)

Sp. Holy Cross.

Sp. St. Catharine (Santa, feminine form)

Sp. A plateau. or table (L)

(A) Like name with pro. H. C.

Sp. Ind. Sp. form Indian tribe name. son of a Captain. applied mistake to San Francisco and copies (L)

Sp. Red.

(A) Name Bounded by Land of the Calif. Taken from a the most popular institution in 18th century.

Sp. The center.

Sp. Shed for selling provisions. Pronounced ca-hoon. perhaps a country store (A) Commonly used for Box Canyon. (L)

Sp. St. James. Other form, Santiago. or Saint Jago (L)

Most rivers and numerous geographical divisions in the Southwest carry Spanish names or corruptions of the Spanish. Old streets and local names are Spanish at St. Augustine, Pensacola, San Antonio, El Paso, Tucson, San Diego and the other old communities of the Southwest. French prevails in street, city, town, and county names from Mobile, Ala. to Lafayette, La.

marked