

Zero Mounments
 TOP, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
 BOTTOM, SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

The zero stone at San Diego was dedicated in 1923 by an address of President Coolidge read by Col. Ed Fletcher of San Diego.

The zero stone at San Antonio was dedicated 1924 by Gov. Pat Neff, city, state, federal and army officials, women's clubs and the Old Freighters Association.

A monument will be dedicated at St. Augustine, Florida, this summer or fall. It will be a globe 6 ft. in diameter covered with sculpture.

CONTENTS

✓ Saint Augustine Monument	4
✓ Romantic Background of old history	7-8
✓ The Modern Highway	9
✓ San Antonio and San Diego monuments	10
✓ Mileage log	12
✓ Map of the Spanish Borderlands, north Mexico	13
Coat-of-Arms, descriptive	14
" " , reproduction in colors	14b
✓ Old Spanish Trail thru old Spanish cities	14c
✓ Old Spanish Trail and its History	15
Spanish mission and administrative works	15
French and Spanish works	15
Three Centuries of Sp Power, Progress and Decline	15
Two centuries spanning the continent	14
Early settlements	14
French and Spanish place-names	14
The eastern trail
The midland trail
The western trails
Fur Trading and Mining
Pioneer paths
La Florida
California
Indians weak and strong
A book of ancient history
Crusaders ancient and modern
✓ The Spanish-American Era
Its history, introduction
Occupying the southern United States

See Chapter 11 for details of the Spanish Trail