Gentlemen:

In your Flag Number (October 1917) p 338, No. 359, you show the royal flag of Spain, 1492, as carried by Columbus etc. with lions on a silver field and gold crowns over their heads.

In Hughes "Famous Flags of America" (Library of Congress) this royal flag is shown without crowns above the lions, and the lions on a white field.

Can you advise me clearly on this?

Thanking you, I am,

Sincerely,

President,
Old Spanish Trail
