LOCAL CONSULS.

There is so much construction going on no attempt is made to show herein the type or condition of roads. Local advices are always better. The Old Spanish Trail therefore has listed the best authorities in each locality as Local Consuls. As you travel confer with them and you will get pleasure out of your trip.

Travelers are advised to keep to the Old Spanish Trail for many reasons; one vital reason is, it has been routed after the most careful study of all alternative roads. Road construction, or had rains in some district, or some local condition may make detours advisable. These are matters Local Consuls know best about.
