Dear Harrah -

How I wish I could have been at your reception Tuesday evening. It is splendid for you to have had such recognition of your work, and it must give you much satisfaction to know that the Trail has made such an impression on a foreign government. Those of us who have had some part in carrying on, and have seen the Trail develop and open up little by little are able to realize what a huge thing it really is, and how difficult it must have been at times, particularly at the beginning when it was so nearly impossible for you to get about & knock the vision into
