CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Columbus, Texas.

June 5, 1925.

Mr. J. C. Baumgarten,
Schulenburg, Texas.

Dear Mr. Baumgarten:

I am enclosing herewith letter for your use with the State Highway Commission.

Instead of writing direct to the Commission, I thought it better to address my letter to you and let you use it with the Commission, as you are our representative in the matter, and I desire to reach them through you.

Please let me know if this plan meets with your approval, and if not I will gladly do anything you may suggest. I am as ever,

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) J. J. Mansfield.
