

This morning Ted forwarded your two letters. Tell your friend Harrah-- or Ayers--that we are thrilled over his triumph, and especially we appreciate his innate sense of modesty. He must be a REAL gentleman... Lotty is reading to me now his letter of "appreciation"--the fact that he forgets, no one who helped his achievement in this public letter, shows the fine spirit of him.
Please congratulate him for me. I hope to meet him some day.
