

88 yrs. old, and active and healthy physically but no longer trustworthy to manage a home - and this old home is maintained for her only. With these troublesome times we must reorganize our affairs. This old home is no longer necessary. Neither my sister nor ~~she~~ belong here any more - so we are trying to rearrange things more in keeping with present conditions.

I hope you have enjoyed the San Antonio winter. And success to you in your work

Sincerely

Harrah
