

and objects of the Association. We are not undertaking in this report to predetermine an exact theory of organization or to pre-judge, at this time, in whom the management and control of said association should rest. We have had many inter views with various parties with reference to these affairs and will be glad to give any further observations which your committee may call upon us to make.

Respectfully,

W. W. AICHMAN, INC

By W. W. Aichman G. P. A.

WMA/adm
9-12-22