

4. In May I learned that letterheads were printed without my name as managing director on them, but with these employees carried at the top. I thereupon returned to San Antonio, May 20th--24th, long enough to compel restoration of my name on the letterheads, and any other printing, and the names of employees if printed at all, to be placed properly. Other things must needs wait for I was due in Jacksonville, then at Washington.

I now find that in the period of my absence the San Antonio office has received $7500.00. Only $80 was paid on rent account, and essentially nothing on other important accounts. These other creditors were given my eastern address to write to me. An audit is being made of these accounts. Also an analysis of disbursements.
