

who are so fortunate as to be able to attend.

Please give my love to Mrs Adams and ask her to please answer my letter of many months ago - I asked her a question I am anxious to have answered.

Thanking you again for your kindness and hoping to again have pleasure of seeing you invited me to be there guest to Sam Antonio for a few days during that hour I had hoped to attend.

(Most truly) Dovie Sabine

Conditions now are such that the trip is rather indefinite so I am here expressing my appreciation for your thoughtfulness and my great regret in not being able to attend.

It will be a great event - that's characteristic of every thing you do - and I envy those