BE SECURED AT THE SIGN OF THE RED TRIANGLE

stands the Merchants State Bank. Judge J.N. Rector, one of our old-time attorneys, still, living here, interviewed Santa Anna in Mexico City.. There are quite a number of men who know a lot about the old history.

Sincerely yours

B. Mumm

The main trail ran from Saltillo to Monterrey-Lampazos-Laredo.

ing up my letter of the 17th. I am interested in showing the route of the Laredo to San Antonio. The main trail from Laredo, but, as Monclova was formerly the site of Coahuila, at that time there was a trail from Monclova via Eagle Pass. This was the trail went from Laredo to Fort Well a few miles northwest of a ranch called owned to an old lady, Mrs. Anna Armanda Burke, who lived on the ranch. She drove cattle in the trail. It then went to a point called Miguel and simply "Miguel" by the Americans under this name on the map. The grandson, Mr. Apolonio Garcia, danced with me here in Laredo, on the site where now
