esque in the South.

INVITATION

Come to "The Hill City of Florida" — You will be charmed by the scenery and climate.

LEON COUNTY

Most beautiful county in Florida; finest section for dairy farms and livestock, general agriculture, peaches, pecans, figs, tobacco, Satsuma oranges.

All-year growing season.
Forty acres is a large enough farm with Intelligent cultivation. Land steadily advancing in price. Unexcelled for stock and diversified crops. Most desirable part of Florida in which to establish a home.

March 24, 1923.

President Fred. B. Johnston, Old Spanish Trail Association, New Orleans, Louisiana.

My dear Sir:

I regret, very much, that I will not be able to attend the Convention. Owing to the fact that many State officials are having reports printed for the Legislature, which convenes here on April 3rd, I, as State printer, must not be absent from my office at this important time.

I have appointed our Secretary, Mrs. F.R.S.
Phillips, and Mr. J.A. Mackintosh, Chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce, as delegates in place of myself and the other delegates heretofore appointed, who cannot leave here at this time.

With best wishes for a very successful Convention, I wish to assure you and the members of your Association that this organization will cooperate with your plans for Florida, and I will be glad to be of any service possible, personally.

Very truly yours,

T.J. Appleyard
T.J. Appleyard,
President.
