Mr. W. M. Dermody, Director,
New Orleans, La.

Dear Sir:

President Pillans has called my attention to the fact that Louisiana Legislature is now in session.

Florida and Texas have already designated the Old Spanish Trail in these states for state and federal aid. I wish you would take steps towards getting the Louisiana Legislature to do likewise.

The Coastal Military Highway, as you are doubtless aware, will probably adopt the line of the Old Spanish Trail as its route.

Mr. W. M. Clemens, Secretary of the Military Highway Association, has taken up with Mr. E. E. Lafaye, question of getting endorsement of Louisiana Legislature for that project, so if you would consult him in connection with the question of Legislature designating line of the Old Spanish Trail for state and federal aid, he could probably handle both matters at the same time?

Yours truly,

SALeB/MS

SECRETARY.

Stew: Jno. Craft tells me that he has already procured this legislative action.
