SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.

August 12, 1922

Mr. H. A. McDonald,
Beaumont, Texas.

My Dear MacDonald,

Was in Beaumont last Sunday. Stopped over on return from Washington and the East to report to you and Mayor Lea. Sorry you were away.

The OST is now over and our work hereafter must follow very differnt lines; I wanted to talk with you about these possible changes in policy also.

I have found here at San Antonio, as I have been fearing for some time, very unbusiness-like conditions. Finances and other things are seriously involved and it looks as though I must take up another white man's burden.

The enclosed letter has reference to a man I understand is at Beaumont now. From what I can gather he has been allowed to go out on conditions that cannot possibly be approved. In this however I may be mistaken, for my information is meagre, and there are no records here. I am told he seems like a good sort of a man. I am sending the letter to avoid any further complications and financial obligations from contracts sigillar to other contracts in my absence now giving trouble here.

With kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely,

Managing Director.
