

ist of the unethical
be sent to the Ohio

ices Considered.

elves.
excessive number of
obtain convention

of guests stopping

issions.

ams "collect" for

imum priced rooms

tising.

prominent personages.

or unidentified people.

attention.

issuance of courtesy

es from other hotels

ting the manager.

one service.

assed were as follows:

ograms and charity

Advertising under heading of "Recommended Hotels".

Paying commissions to public porters and taxicab drivers to direct business.

Special concessions to officers of organizations to divert business.

Cutting luncheon rates to civic associations.

Selling advance room space at a discount in blocks to be resold by agencies.

Complimenting representatives of transportation companies.

Setting no definite hour for the beginning of the second day charge.

Not demanding restitution where possible to establish criminal intent by bad check passers and forgers.

Free service—newspapers, fruit, etc.

No room service charge.

Free insurance to guests.

Free buses and taxis to and from stations.

Giving bus lines commissions.

Soliciting business on public carriers.

Distributing hotel literature on public highways.

Giving free days to guests who stay one week.

at 1 p. m. discussion of variconfronting the hotel indu-by J. D. Farr, Hotel Hussn-T. J. Harris, Westbrook, Worth; Charles B. Addis-Norte, El Paso; A. J. C-Spring and Carlsbad, N. M. ley, Settles Hotel, Big Sprin-

Following a morning of the Settles Hotel men's el-luncheon was served in Settles mezzanine floor bar

Delegates were guests of Saturday evening at the f-

CALVIN BOY
Manager Crawford Hotel
was a prominent fac-
tainment of hote

exas Hotel Men at Big Spring.

ing of Regional Hotel Association Has Good ance—Officers Re-elected and Wichita Falls ected for Next Meeting in Midsummer.

erators of West Texas
the second quarterly
West Texas Hotel Assg Spring April 18, with at honors divided beard and Settles hotels.
s were re-elected and ected for the next quarconclusion of the organ-session. C. A. Sheffield,

Hotel Lubbock, Lubbock, was again named president; Howard Gholson, Ranger, vice president, and Calvin Boykin, Big Spring, secretary. Hotel managers representing the larger institutions from El Paso to Fort Worth and Wichita Falls to San Angelo were in attendance.

Meeting in executive session following a luncheon at the Settles, which began ing of the Crawford Hot-which was celebrated with dance. Garland Woodwa-torney, "rung the bell" ia delegate, with his addr-at the luncheon.

Delegates registered
following: T. J. Harris, Worth; Elmer Elliot, De-Paul Montgomery, Holt,
Dick Levy, Texan, Wich-Crawford, Crawford, Car-
Clark S. Cates, Kemp, V-W. R. Carter, Marchman, E. B. Riesenber, Westex, Tinsley, Settles, Big Sprin-Hussmann, El Paso; C. A. bock, Lubbock; Calvin Boy-Big Spring; H. B. Allen, Sweetwater; Harvey Day, Campbell, Laguna, Cisco; Hilton, San Angelo; Franklor, San Angelo; W. A. Mybock, Lubbock; Howard G-son, Ranger; Happy McGand Grace, Abilene; J.
Douglass, Big Spring; Charl-Paso Del Norte, El Paso; Capital, Amarillo; Mr. Mes-

SHEFFIELD
ed President.

Settles Hotel, headquarters for West Texas Convention.