

for you. It isn't often a person's efforts, and final achievement are appreciated such as yours have been.

It is now about ten years since my last visit to dear old San Antonio, and I would like to make you all another visit, but not a chance right now, or in the future.

We are up in Santa Ynez Valley now third world where we brought our dear mother, who has not been so well.
A delightful spot, with a decided Spanish background. Not far from the old Santa
