Mr. Harry Locke,
Los Angeles, Cal.

My dear Harry:

Please note enclosed letter from Mr. G. L. Blakesley, and send him Guide Book, C.O.D.

I seem to have quite forgotten to advise you result of call on Mr. Proctor. He had gone south, Tampa or somewhere, two days before hand, and nobody around the garage seemed to know much about it.

Lloyd sent forty-nine books. Rice of Crestview, I did not see. Do you want me to write him again?

Speed at which we are lending money to our Allies may assist us in building the Old Spanish Trail.

The Chamber of Commerce has gotten up quite a representative bunch of speakers, including Batchelder of the A.A.A., and a lot of others that I have forgotten name of.

What is more important, however, they have received an endorsement of the project from Gen. Wood, who says if it is organized on sound lines, it has tremendous possibilities for good. Both Senator Chambers and Congressman Dent, Executive Chairmen of Military Committee in the Senate and in Congress, have approved the project, and if popular demand can be created, they think they can put the Bill through in December. I will believe it when I see it.

Yours truly,

SECRETARY.
