

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY HIGHWAY ASSOCIATION

ORANGE AND WHITE WAY

THE U. S. A.'s greatest Trans-continental Highway. Because she begins at Ely, Minn., and Fort Arthur, Canada, and as she approaches the coast she spreads fan-like, quits at quaint old New Orleans, Gulfport, Miss., and Mobile—three sea ports. Because she makes the north and south neighbors. Because the Orange and White Way traverses the heart of the U. S. A.'s richest food producing section (meat, grain, cotton, sugar, lumber), and our greatest manufacturing center of steel, iron and wood, and the most densely populated section. Because most active and nearest completed of all our great Trans-continental Highways.

Dear Sir:

The writer is very much interested in your Highway as he is President of the M. V. H. that joins yours at New Orleans, Gulf Port and Mobile. I am figuring on getting out a new map and want to show your map. Please send me one of your maps and please find one of our maps also send me a copy of your Constitutional by laws. I will appreciate and recipitate too if you will favor me this much.

Very truly yours,

CJ/HR
