Chipley, Fla. Oct. 1, 1915.

Mr. S. A. LeBlanc,

Mobile, Alabama.

Dear Sir:-

Your favors of Sept. 22nd and 30th received.

Since receipt of your correspondence I have given this matter some little attention, with view of drawing out the points of interest to your City, as well as this place and I beg to advise you along this line; at present there is available west of this point-hard road-of clay surface in excellent condition traversing country well able to support the upkeep of same, touching the following points: i. e.

From Chipley, Fla., westward, with points named in geographical order:

✓Chipley, Fla. Bonifay, Fla. ✓DeFuniak Spring, Fla.
✓Crestview, Fla. Milligan, Fla. ✓Holts, Fla.
✓Milton, Fla. Jay, Fla. ✓Flomaton, Ala.

I trust you are more familiar with the country west of Flomaton, and can suggest the best possible route in connection with that above outlined, to work with greatest pressure towards points in view.

If can be of further service on this question, do not hesitate expression.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) OLIN SHIVERS,

NB-- Free ferry at Caryville and Milton, both of safe operating facilities.
